Attention all enthusiastic photographers.

Over the recent weeks, Higher Photography students have been submitting their top weekly photographs for 'Photographers of the Week' on the school website. This initiative has been highly successful within our community. I'd like to invite any student (or staff member) with a passion for photography and an interest in being featured as a 'Photographer of the Week' to send your submission to Mr James at: gw19jamesross@glow.sch.uk.
