"The aim of these workshops is for young people of all backgrounds and interests within upper high school to gain exposure to different roles and skills that they might not have thought about within the creative industries in a fun and engaging creative workshop setting.

In spring 2025, WonderFools will be staging a gripping new theatre show, The Kelton Hill Fair, at Castle Douglas Town Hall in partnership with D&G Arts Live. Following the workshops, there will be a public callout for young people in Dumfries and Galloway to gain paid work experience through employment on the production
