3 miles in March

This month I am taking part in a charity event, raising money for Sepsis Trust UK. Every day in March, I need to complete 3 miles! So far it is going ok, but I'd really like your help.

Some lunchtimes or maybe after school, I will be using the track to get my miles in... however 12 laps to do the 3 miles seems ENDLESS! I'm asking for people to join me, walking, running, or even just count the laps. It would really mean a lot 😊

For the rest of March, I will send a weekly update of the days I'll be out.

No special trainers or running gear needed - Just good conversation and company.

Thank you, Mrs Heatlie
